About AIFL

Dr. K. Luke OFM Cap

Assisi Institute of Foreign Languages is a humble venture in the memory of Rev. Dr. K. Luke OFM, Cap (1927-2010) who was a member of Capuchin order, Theologian, Exegete, Philologist and well-known linguist in India. he was Proficient in 45 languages and an inspiration to AIFL's growth

AIFL has been giving training German language since 2016 September in Bharananganam, Kottayam. AIFL functions under Capuchin Charitable and Educational Society (CCES). This institution aims at creating borderlessness by going beyond ones's linguistic limits.

AIFL ensures outstanding language training with the guidance of German natives and professional language trainers with affordable tuition fee. Our teaching faculty consists of highly qualified teachers along with the German volunteers to interact with the students. Learners of all age groups are treated with equal respect and the teaching faculty guarantees the learners to achieve their dreams within a short span of time

Our Vision

To rise up as leading providers of German language and communication services to students' community.

Our Mission

We aim to bridge the gap that exists between skill required-set required by the corporate world and skills acquired by the students through a regular course of study. Thus it improves the employability of students.
